

Sharing Lessons Learned

Join us for a workshop on Native youth financial education

October 5, 2006

1:30–4:30 p.m. (Central Time)

Presenters will discuss three financial education focus areas:

- Programs for Native youth in the K-12 classroom setting
- Extracurricular programs (outside of and after school)
- Programs designed for youth making the transition from high school to living on their own

In conjunction with Money Smart Week Wisconsin, the Native Financial Education Coalition, the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions and the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis are working with Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwa Community College (LCOOCC) Extension to present Money Smart Native Youth: Sharing Lessons Learned in Native Financial Education.

This free workshop will feature presentations from individuals who are delivering financial education to Native youth across the country.

We are pleased to present this event at the LCOOCC campus in Hayward, Wisconsin, and to offer it as a live “webinar,” which will enable offsite attendees to participate via teleconference while viewing the presenters’ PowerPoint slides online.

To attend the workshop in person, contact Star Boss at 715-634-4790 ext. 130 or starq@lco.edu. A complimentary lunch will be available to onsite participants beginning at 12:00 p.m.

To register for the webinar,* visit <http://fedgov.webex.com> and enter the key words “Money Smart” in the Search box.

* Phone line and high-speed Internet connection required.

The Money Smart Native Youth workshop is sponsored by:

